Martha and Mary Dolls

Background

You can make these paper dolls and then get the children to recreate the Martha & Mary story. The dolls have different faces on different sides to help them tell the story.

You will need:

- The templates from the following pages printed onto card.
- Glue/Tape

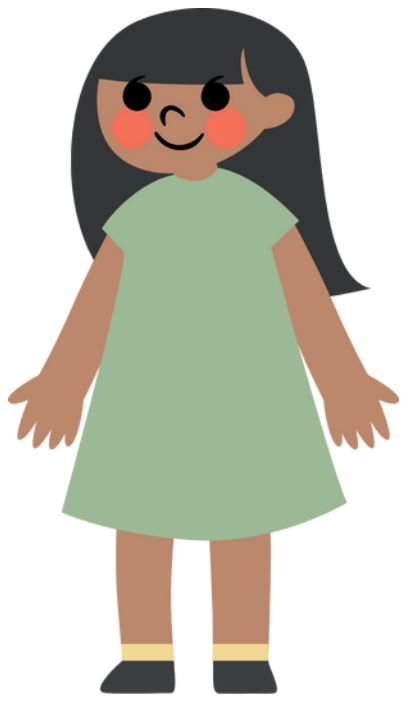

Instructions:

Print out the templates with enough for each child and cut out.

Fold along the lines so the doll stands up in a triangle shape and glue or tape the tab to the inside of the other end. Enjoy!

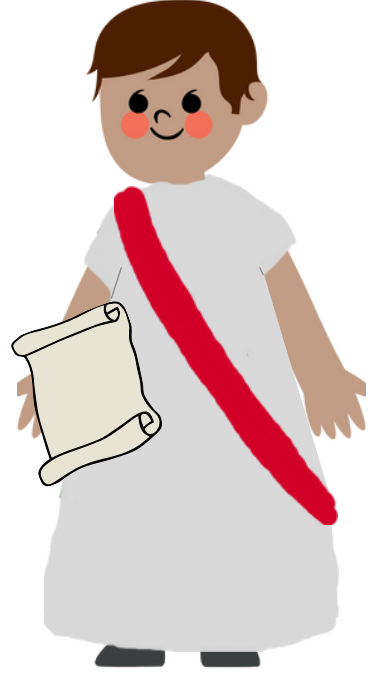

Alternatively you can create your own templates and ask the children to draw their own versions of Martha, Mary & Jesus
