

Prayers of the Faithful - National Apology Day

Today we come united as we pray to God, who will heal our wounds, and free us to love and show compassion, justice and peace to all.

We pray that all Australians recognise the hurts of our past that have been inflicted on our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander brothers and sisters. May we learn from our mistakes and act with justice and compassion as we work towards equality and justice for all people.

For this we pray....

In unity, God hear our prayer

We pray for reconciliation and compassion and the grace to move forward together in peace.

For this we pray....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

We pray that Australians act with fairness and justice towards Indigenous Australians. May we bring comfort to those who are suffering and healing love to those whose lives have been shattered broken.

For this we pray....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

We pray for the human community: that we will continue to nurture our relationships with you, our Creator God, with one another and with all creation.

For this we pray....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

We pray for ourselves as followers of Jesus: that we will build reconciling and inclusive communities to which people are drawn and have a strong sense of belonging.

For this we pray....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

We pray for all Christians: that we will cultivate a deep awareness of, and commitment to, social justice and social welfare by hearing and answering the cry of the poor and outcast in our local communities.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

God of love and justice, we pray for our land Australia that all who live here never lose the ancient connection to its first people.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

God of love and justice, we pray for our land Australia that all who live here never lose the ancient connection to its first people.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

God of love and justice, we pray that our political, religious and community leaders act in the interests of all the people in this land, that they walk the talk of Reconciliation.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

God of love and justice, we pray for all those who live in the cities and towns, those who live in the communities, settlements and missions, those on the islands, those in the bush, those who are far from home, those who do not know where home is, those who have been taken from their homes, those in prisons. May they all come to know your compassion and love.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.

God of love and justice, we pray for Reconciliation: that the wrongs of the past may be recognised, that our awareness of the journey so far be awakened and that the Spirit moves us to walk the talk and follow through what has been started.

For this we pray.....

In unity, God hear our prayer.
