

Background

- This flip book helps us see when we welcome others we welcome Jesus. It also helps us identify the people in our lives that we can welcome and create a place for.

You will need

- Printouts from the following page. 1 per child.
- Colouring pens/pencils.
- Scissors
- Staplers and Staples/Glue

Instructions

1. Print out copies of the flip book from the following page.
2. Get the children to cut out the pieces and colour in the words.
3. On the blank pieces ask the children to write down others who they could welcome in their lives.
4. Over the word others, glue or staple the edge of the smaller pieces to create the flip pages.

When I welcome

others

I welcome
Jesus

When I
welcome

others

I welcome
Jesus

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.

Blank rectangular box with a vertical dashed line on the left side, intended for writing.