Advent prayer space

Creating an Advent prayer space is a wonderful way to journey through the season. Try adding one to your home, classroom or children's ministry space this Advent! If it's hard for a child to find a place in their house where they can leave things set up, they could make a special prayer box filled with things instead. Then they can set up anywhere! Below are some items you may like to include.

You will need:

- a purple cloth
- a cross
- your bible
- an Advent wreath and Advent candles with three purple candles, one pink candle and a white candle (battery-operated candles, used with supervision, are fine).
- a nativity set
- words from the bible that you love
- things you find in the garden
- pictures of people who inspire you
- a journal to write or draw your prayers in
- special pens and pencils or watercolour paint
- colouring in pages about Jesus and stories from the bible
