Instructions

- In today's activity, the children will give away their coins and receive coins in return.
- You will need an envelope or small container containing about 12 coins for each child (see template below)
- The children will go around and give their coins away, one by one
- When someone gives them a coin, they must give that person two coins in return
- Play for about 3 minutes, then call them back to the circle.
- See how many coins each person now has
- The person who gave away the most should have the most coins at the end.
